

Additional Terms for Purchased Turnings

1. For mixed ferro grade turnings, with low Ti below 85%, price will be reduced by pro-rating, or they may be rejected and returned.
2. For high vanadium turnings, with low Ti below 82%, price will be reduced by pro-rating, or they may be rejected and returned.
3. For turnings that require extra crushing and/or shredding the price will be reduced by $0.30 per pound, or they may be rejected and returned.
4. For turnings that are contaminated with Pb and/or Bi, the price will be reduced by 30%, or they may be rejected and returned.
5. For turnings with excessive solids that cannot be removed with normal solid separation methods, the solids will not be paid for, or the turnings may be rejected or returned.
6. For turnings with excessive fines, there may be a price reduction up to $0.20 per pound, or they may be rejected and returned.
7. All swarf will be rejected and returned.
8. Loose shipments must be shipped via dump truck or walk-off trailer or with suitable packaging such as boxes, bales, drums, etc. Loose shipments that are not delivered in a dump truck or walk-off trailer and require manual unloading will be subject to a price reduction of $0.10 per pound.